

Listing of Career Fairs across the United States

Military/Veteran & Military Spouse

Web Host	Web Address	Comments
Civilian Jobs	www.civilianjobs.com	Now serviced by RecruitMilitary.
ClearedJobs	www.clearedjobs.net	Always open to anyone who holds a Secret Clearance or higher.
Corporate Gray	www.corporategray.com	Carl Savion was the first to offer career fairs for transitioning military. Most of his career fairs are focused to the military, active and retired. Some include spouses and periodically Carl offers one for professional job seeker.
JobZoneOnline	www.jobzoneonline.com	Military focused. Some career fairs are for military veterans and family members only, some open to all. Some of Janet Giles career fairs are strictly open to all.
MilitaryConnection	www.militaryconnection.com/jobfairs.asp	A small selection that is drawn from a small sweep of the web. Also offers a listing of virtual career fairs that are in truth links to employers who claim to be military/veteran friendly. This virtual list currently contains 160 employers. A job seeker clicks on the employer site to see what the employer does and then can click to job openings, then to posting a resume.
Military MOJO	www.militarymojo.org/event-location	A new site offering an extensive career fair outing that requires pre-registration. Career fairs are for officers, sometimes including Warrant and E-9s but not always. Can sign up for notices.
RecruitMilitary	www.recruitmilitary.com	Strictly for transitioning military, veterans and sometimes spouses.

TAOnline	www.taonline.com	An aggregator of career fair listing that is quite accurate. Focuses on career fairs offered to the military and to the veteran. Also lists hiring events of Orion and Bradley.
TargetedJobs	www.targetedjobs.com	Focused to those who hold a clearance. Offers hosting for employers. Focused in the Eastern half of the country for the most part. Texas is the farthest west their fairs have been identified on their web site.
TechExpo	www.techexpo.com	Focused on the eastern half of the US.
TransitionCareers	www.transitioncareers.com	Heavily focused to the East Coast but offers some career fairs in Ohio, Texas and the West Coast. Has not shown career fairs or open houses since March 2017.
US Chamber of Commerce	www.uschamber.com/hiringourheroes	A national coverage that lists career fairs by date.
VeteranRecruiting	www.veteranrecruiting.com/calendar	This is a site of a monthly virtual career fair for active duty, veteran, and military spouses. In February it is strictly for Officers, in May for military spouses.
VetJobs	www.vetjobs.com/media/upcoming-military-related-careerfairs	Comprehensive listing of career fairs focused to the transitioning and transitioned military person. Site asks for permission to be obtained by other than state DoL counselors. Ted Dawalt, VetJobs, in Atlanta is the President and will gladly cooperate. If Ted's contact info is needed let me know.
VetReady	www.vetready.org	National coverage but must pre-register for all of their career fairs. Relatively new, site not the easiest to work.
