

SCHEDULED CAREER FAIRS & OPEN HOUSES

(East Coast – Maine to Florida)

December 3, 2017

A word of caution: check with both the sponsor and the hosting facility for listed Career Fairs and Open Houses before leaving home. Pre-registration or early registration can often make for easier access. Many Career Fair providers now require that you pre-register and do not accept resumes onsite. Some require early registration if not holding Military ID. When attending Career Fairs be sure to bring more resumes than you plan to distribute. When attending an Open House be sure to bring a half-dozen copies of your resume. Also, note the resources listed at the end of this career fair listing. These resources are categorized by type of search. Please feel free to forward this listing to others you feel can benefit from the information and ability to plan ahead. To receive your own copy of the listing please request such at: jjmditt@careerfairs-eastcoast.com. Next distribution scheduled for December 31, 2017.

This listing will be at www.careerfairs-eastcoast.com shortly.

NOTICE: Strongly recommend pre-registration for those events you wish to attend.
Many sponsoring career fair providers now REQUIRE pre-registration.
Always check with the facility holding the event prior to leaving home!

Special notes:

A particularly beneficial website, developed by Steve Gallison, Manager, Business Services and Staff Development, and his staff at Professional Outplacement Assistance Center, Laurel, Maryland is below. His programs continue to be offered, and upgraded at the facility in Laurel, MD, under the excellent direction of Ms. Nancy Fink, Director, and her staff:

www.dllr.state.md.us/poac for links to downloadable websites for recruiters, agencies, and employers. Also, this site explains and allows registration of its various programs, including the nationally recognized JumpStart transition program.

Below are useful websites, categorized by several specialties, military transitioning, security clearance, federal employment, salary, interviewing, cost of living, IT, and general interest.

For Salary and Negotiations information Gallison offered: www.salary.com; www.drewsoftware.com, for matching job to personality and www.queendom.com, for the more popular tests in use.

For companies that require security clearances it is strongly recommended that the following format be incorporated into your resume. In your "Heading" (your name, street address, city and telephone) be sure to show your e-mail address, your LinkedIn address and your security clearance immediately below. These are the first items the recruiter and the company want to know whether at a job fair, when pulling your resume off the web or when you send your resume electronically, by fax or snail-mail.

An excellent resource for the Job Seeker is www.careerxroads.com for quality information on web sites, and also for niche sites and the Nonprofit arena. When looking at Nonprofits and you require financial information go to www.guidestar.org.

*A site for Technology Professionals that lists technical groups and their meetings, by geographic or subject area is www.JobCircle.com/public/events. This is now part of Beyond.com, the second largest Job Board.

A site for nonprofits, their management, general data and salary information is BoardSource, formerly the National Center for Nonprofit Boards, is www.boardsource.org.

Check out the web site www.idealists.org for quality information and periodic Job Fairs for the Nonprofit arena usually scheduled with area colleges and universities. You can also post your resume with this site.

Here are some of the more popular sites for specific job search, career fairs, and career management information:

Please note: Each URL below has been checked for existence and content as of December 26, 2016.

Websites for Job Search and Career Management Issues – Military and General

Job seekers should use these two websites before participating in any of the job fairs listed above, or others. This also included the seldom offered Open House. Both offer excellent counsel on the Career Fair and what one should be prepared for prior to attending job fairs. Saves a lot of time and makes the attendance at a Career Fair worthwhile.

Patra Frame www.patraframe.com is a relatively new site focused to the transitioning military and military family. A former U.S. Air Force Officer, Ms. Frame, has been a strong resource for transitioning military and their families. PatraFrame is the most recent of her websites, earlier ones were focused on women in IT and then broaden to all who chose the IT career. PatraFrame takes the visitor to Tomorrow Comes. This site offers a complete tour, with instructions and examples for all of the elements in transitioning from the military to the private sector. A gifted speaker, author, and coach and counselor, she offers always current and relevant information for those transitioning and transitioned military. Her YouTube video, part of ClearedJobs.net career fairs and web presence, are considered the most helpful. A military family, Ms. Frame has also strong experience in the private sector with General Electric, before becoming an independent consultant. Her work with small and medium sized companies in the metropolitan Washington, DC area is well known. While Patra's focus is the transitioning military and veteran, her work is totally relevant to all job seekers.

Job-Hunting.org www.job-Hunt.org is Susan Joyce's excellent contribution to those in the search mode. She offers the reader a tutorial, beginning with knowing the position you truly want to go after and the steps to take, in sequence. Moving the reader through the steps, she offers specific websites to review. She also offers timely and current articles, as they are written, on the various aspects of job search, considering the entrepreneurial world, and the use of Facebook. An excellent resource here.

Websites of Career Fair Providers and Portals for individuals holding US Security Clearances:

ClearanceJobs.com www.ClearanceJobs.com is a Dice Holdings Company web site for individuals holding active clearances with DoD, DoE, NRC and NSA. Individuals can post their resume as well as look at posted positions calling for cleared personnel. The search for positions can be by state if desired. DICE is the one niche site still having great success is connecting IT job seekers with employers.

ClearedConnections.com www.clearedconnections.com is yet another resource for the individual who holds a security clearance. Like the other sites, it offers free uploading of job seekers resumes, has a page for the job seeker and another for the employer. The site also lists current industries that are growth or receiving large contracts. Employers are encouraged to search the site for resumes that may fit their requirements. Like all the other sites offering free services to the holder of a clearance the site is accessible to all employers requiring cleared personnel.

ClearedJobs.net www.clearedjobs.net a Veteran-owned ClearedJobs.Net offers thousands of online security-cleared CONUS/OCONUS positions with leading defense and intel contractors, as well as Cleared Job Fairs and Cyber Job Fairs for transitioning military to meet face-to-face with premier employers. ClearedJobs.Net is committed to helping transitioning military succeed in the cleared and cyber communities. Follow cleared job search news and advice via clearedjobs.net/blog, or visit their YouTube channel youtube.com/clearedjobs.net.

Corporate Gray.com www.corporategray.com - Corporate Gray was established in 1994 to help transitioning and former military personnel connect with employers in print through their publication (The Military-to-Civilian Transition Guide), in person at their Corporate Gray "Military Friendly" Job Fairs, and online through Corporate Gray Online. They have set the standard with regard to hosting quality job fairs, publishing a first rate career transition book, and running a state-of-the-art military-to-civilian career transition website. To date, they've given over 4 million copies of their book to transitioning service members, held over 150 military-focused job fairs across the country, and connected thousands of veterans with employers through their website. Job seekers benefit from attending their military-focused job fairs (both in-person and virtual) reading The Military-to-Civilian Transition Guide, and using Corporate Gray Online to search and apply for jobs of interest. Companies benefit from using their range of recruiting services to connect with military veterans – in print, in person, and online. Check out the latest job search and transition advice articles on the Corporate Gray Blog (<http://blog.corporategray.com>).

Defense Talent Network www.defensetalent.org. An organization seeking both the cleared professional and the employers seeking cleared professionals for their contracts. This includes companies in defense, aerospace, RF/Microwave and related industries. There is no fee for the cleared professional seeking employment with any of the identified industries above.

Civilianjobs.com www.civilianjobs.com. Web site for transitioning military and spouses offers free online recruiting. Caution here, there are portions of this web site that are not free.

IntelligenceCareers.com. www.IntelligenceCareers.com, aka ICDefense Jobs, www.ICDefenseJobs.com, offers resources and programs for those with clearances and who are interested in either connecting with the federal sector or with a contractor to the federal sector. This group periodically offers a one-day seminar on securing opportunities with DoD contractors and other organizations holding security clearance required positions. It also provides a guide to the value of the resume (of individuals holding a clearance) in the Intelligence Community upon request.

Transition Assistance Online www.taonline.com is a long standing web site listing transition information and career fairs and hiring conferences scheduled across the country. It is always wise, however, to check the specific site after checking the taonline site as schedules sometimes change and do not get forwarded to other sites that collect and post the information.

Transition Careers com www.transitioncareers.com. An independent facilitator of technical and security clearance career fairs on-site military installations nationwide. Provides a job board that is networked with 1000+ other job boards. Fairs are open to Military, Government Civilians, Contractors and Family Members that have access to the military installation where the event is taking place. renaming of his web sites.

Web Sites Supporting the Military in Transition, Spouses and Veterans:

Chamber of Commerce, US www.uschamberfoundation.org, is the US Chamber's new effort, begun in late 2010, in support of service members returning to the workplace. Key to this site is the ongoing listing of sponsored and co-sponsored career fairs focused to the returning service member, veterans, Reserve and Guard components and their spouses.. Upon entering the web page cited above the reader is offered a number of options while the listing of cities sponsoring career fairs is centered and offered by date of the career fair. Options include a Veteran's Advisory Board, Military Spouse Business Alliance connection, a newsletter, a useful conversion of military job titles to private sector titles – more effective than most; and resources on resume preparation.

ClearedJobs.net www.clearedjobs.net a Veteran-owned ClearedJobs.Net offers thousands of online security-cleared CONUS/OCONUS positions with leading defense and intel contractors, as well as Cleared Job Fairs and Cyber Job Fairs for transitioning military to meet face-to-face with premier employers. ClearedJobs.Net is committed to helping transitioning military succeed in the cleared and cyber communities. Follow cleared job search news and advice via clearedjobs.net/blog, or visit their YouTube channel youtube.com/clearedjobsdotnet.

Corporate Gray.com www.corporategray.com - Corporate Gray was established in 1994 to help transitioning and former military personnel connect with employers in print through their publication (The Military-to-Civilian Transition Guide), in person at their Corporate Gray "Military Friendly" Job Fairs, and online through Corporate Gray Online. Easter Seals Greater Washington-Baltimore Region, Inc www.gwbr.easterseals.com has a program Veterans Employment Program, focused specifically to veterans who meet one of the following criteria: have separated within the past 48 months, or have a service-connected disability, or have a significant barrier to employment, or are a veteran who served on active duty in the Armed Forces during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a Campaign Badge has been authorized. This organization does have geographic boundaries for its services. The organization also provides monthly “Job Prep Workshops.” Easter Seals of Greater Washington-Baltimore now has a new entity. Veterans Staffing Network (VSN) is a fee based placement firm (charging the employer only) that works to provide opportunities for veterans. It does not work with individuals who did not service in any one of the seven uniform services. Currently, they have postings primarily on the east coast. See below under Veteran Staffing Network for more information and URL.

eMilitary.org www.eMilitary.org. A non-profit organization focused to the military and military family offering validated information for the military family covering most areas of assistance and information for those stepping away from the military and for PCS situations. Web site is www.eMILITARY.org. Identifies itself as the Military Family Network.

Feds Hire Vets www.fedshirevets.gov/job/events/ is web site for veterans interested in considering and finding federal positions.

GJJoeJobs.com www.GJJoeJobs.com is a new web site officially opened April 11, 2014. It offers a free job board for employers, free resume posting for transitioning service members, veterans and spouses. The third piece of the job board offers a “full service” and counsel on “every aspect of career management.” The job search offered by GJJoeJobs is serviced by Beyond.com network, and offers the standard approach to searching by job title and/or location. Registration opened April 7, 2014.

IntelligenceCareers.com. www.IntelligenceCareers.com, aka ICDefense.com, offers resources and programs for those with clearances and who are interested in either connecting with the federal sector or with a contractor to the federal sector. This group periodically offers a one-day seminar on securing opportunities with DoD contractors and other organizations holding security clearance required positions. It also provides a guide to the value of the resume (of individuals holding a clearance) in the Intelligence Community upon request. The requestor must hold a currently valid clearance, Secret or higher or ask for the free service.

Military.com www.military.com is a highly helpful and useful resource for military, transitioning military and veterans. The site offers an extremely wide and useful number of resources from the military pay grade, MOS translation, military organizations, military associations, links for military uniform insignia, and more. See also the Military.com/Spouse link below.

Military-Civilian www.military-civilian.com is a relatively new site offering job and resume postings, notices of job offerings and a LinkedIn Hot Jobs for Veterans and Families Group, <http://bit.ly/military-civilian>. These free services can be downloaded to much of your social media units.

MilitaryConnection.com www.militaryconnectin.com is a highly comprehensive directory for current and former military. Most useful one-stop resource that covers the spectrum of needs and interests of current as well as former military. Has an extensive listing of virtual career fairs all in one location.

MilitaryHire.com www.MilitaryHire.com. A web site for transitioning and former military. Offers a free job board for veterans.

MilitaryLeaders.com www.militaryleader.com specializes in recruitment and placement of Military personnel – officer, enlisted, veteran and retiree -- into civilian positions. Offers registration in career fairs selected by transitioning service members. Offers a Quarterly Hiring Conference that is held in Philadelphia, PA. This organization offers 5 hour consulting to HR and Recruiters, or large group on how and where to recruit military candidates. The organization also offers to identify the military profiles that align with the employer’s positions. They also provide direct referrals, pre-screen and pre-qualify candidates to the employers who sign up and then are unable to participate in the program. The employer who signs up pays for this service. The veteran candidate does not pay for anything.

MilitaryMOJO www.militarymojo.org is a new web site specifically focused to the transitioning officer and senior Non-Commissioned Officer. The group held three career fairs in 2013; and has four scheduled for 2014: Austin, TX; Virginia Beach, VA; Seattle, WA; and Washington, DC. The site also supports this same category of service member at their LinkedIn site where resume and career tips are offered. The LinkedIn address is: www.linkedin.com/groups/Military-MOJO-5063691. The group is also on Facebook, Google+ and Twitter. Both job seekers and employers can register for upcoming career fairs 24/7 throughout the year.

Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) www.moaa.org is the nation's largest and most influential association of military officers. MOAA hosts the largest military-friendly career fairs in the Washington, D.C. area twice annually. Employers like Amazon, Chick-fil-A, L-3 MPRI, Lockheed Martin, Target, and more consistently attend to find high quality candidates. MOAA has teamed up with Milicruit to offer virtual career fairs – bringing employers and job seekers together from the comfort and convenience of their home or office – from anywhere with internet access! Other MOAA transition services include: resume critiques, career counseling sessions, transition lectures, a secure job board, a member-to-member state wide networking program, and a variety of helpful videos and publications. In addition to transition services, MOAA members have access to services specifically designed for them. MOAA's Legislative Update brings issues on Capitol Hill to you. Its financial tools can help you navigate the complex maze of military benefits. Our educational assistance program can help you put your children through college. Our Spouse and Families program helps your loved ones stay informed. If you are or were an officer in any of the seven services why not join MOAA

Military Spouses www.milspouse.com is a new site established for the spouses of those serving in the military on active duty. Offers periodic virtual career fairs for the spouses at www.militaryspousecf.com. The site offers information and counsel on the various aspects of military and military spouse life with resources covering deployment, family, careers and education, relationships, a magazine, blogs and more. Offers a free Military Community e-Newsletter.

Military Spouse Employment Partnership www.msepjobs.com is the new web site specifically for military spouses. DoD has set up a military spouse partnership with employers, currently 79 and growing. This partnership is to ensure quality and professional opportunities equal to skill sets held by spouses, in and around military installations. Supporting links include: military Spouse Network; Military Spouse Career Center; Military Spouse Blog: SpouseBUZZ; and Latest Military Spouse and Family News.

NCOA www.ncoausa.org Congressionally chartered to support current and former military enlisted and their families in transition and post transition efforts. Affiliated with www.MilitaryJobWorld.com to provide online transition information. Provides career fairs offering a variety of focused attendance. Some are for the senior enlisted side, some for CPOs, Warrants, and Officers..

Senior Military in Transition www.seniormilitaryintransition.com, is a new web site for the transitioning senior military. Senior as defined as one leading others, so the site offers resources for those in the ranks of NCO and Officer. The site is wide ranging in terms of resources. Depth and currency of information is unclear. Worth the initial search for information. Some of its postings are very good for those in leadership at all ranks although hyped as senior in rank.

Spouse Buzz www.spouse.com. The new web portal for military wives, operated by Military.com is the largest Military Spouse Job Network offering information on Health, Fitness, Finances, Base Communities and selection of branch of service for more focus. Not much on Job Search, the tools, techniques or resources. Quality of information less than expected. May develop more in the Chat Room.

Troops to Teachers www.proudtoserveagain.com the web site for transitioning military interested in pursuing teaching positions within the fifty states. Each state has its own representative who explains the requirements including certifications required and timing requirements.

VetJobs.com www.vetjobs.com, is the largest military related job board on the Internet. VetJobs is ranked as one of the very top job boards while at the same time being a niche job board. It is supported by and partially owned by the VFW, and endorsed by VVA, Naval Reserve Association, Veterans of Modern Warfare, and others. Workforce Magazine ranks it among its leading job boards, as does AIRS. Over 3,000 employers use VetJobs, and candidates do not have to register to view jobs or apply, they can apply directly. Lists of upcoming Job/Career Fairs are found in VetJobs monthly newsletter. This site is free to veterans, transitioning military and their family members. With its latest version of its web site in August it now has 200,000+ visitors each month. This is a strong positive for military and former military as the market tightens considerably and the media is beginning to give greater recognition of the values to employers in hiring former military. Look for an excellent listing of military focused career fairs that are included as only one of the options of assistance to the transitioning service member and veterans interested in securing and/or changing positions.

Veterans Jobs www.Veterans.jobs assists separating military personnel in the transition from active duty to job opportunities in the civilian workplace. The companies featured on this My.jobs Microsite have a focus on the recruitment and hiring of Veterans. The site offers mini videos of many of those firms with current opportunities. The job opportunities that appear on this site represent the employer's priority of finding and hiring veterans into their organizations. The posted opportunities are primarily in the private sector as opposed to the governments, Federal, State, County and Local, and excludes the majority of NGOs and the Association world. A most helpful aspect of this web site is the ability of the separating/retiring service person to enter his/her Military Occupation Specialty (Code) into the URL, www.XXX.jobs. The individual's MOS replaces the "XXX" in the preceding example. In other words, the service member whose MOS is 2891 would key into the browser the URL www.2891.jobs to see what opportunities can be found in the private sector.

Websites Offering Translation of Military MOS/MOSC/MOC Ratings

A strong caution here: Never, never just use the translation but start with that information, then research the company and see how what you actually have done and/or been doing fits in with what the company is doing, particularly where they have job posting along the line of what you actually do. Also, ask former members of your unit or larger grouping what they are doing with what they did.

CareerOne Stop www.careeronestop.org, Brings up careeronestop. Center of the page asks the transitioning service member to enter the MOC (Military Occupational Classification/code). Options or supplements to the MOC are Keyword Search and/or Menu Search by using service member's military title, or branch of service. CareerOneStop services the five DoD Services but does not cover the NOAA or USPHS.

DoL Military to Civilian Occupation Translator www.acinet.org/acinet/moc/default.aspx?nodeid=213 is the U.S. Department of Labor's translator of Military to Civilian information. This site is also the sponsor of the O*Net Military Skills Translator, <http://online.onetcenter.org/crosswalklisted> below.

Military.com www.military.com/veteran-jobs/skills-translator is viewed by many as a most user friendly site. On accessing the site viewer is asked for branch of service, pay grade and military job title (MOS/MOSC/MOC) MOC Rating Designator. Sub specialties and training are then asked for to allow for more customized search for potential matches. Considered the top translator by military recruiters and veterans.

Military2FedJobs www.Mil2FedJobs.com is similar to the other links in this section in that it offers assistance in identifying federal job characteristics such as pay, grade, and duties.

Onetonline.org www.onetonline.org, offers options for search words or identifiers. Gives an example for each option. Some onsite commentators have offered that for those holding combat arms MOCs the search is less helpful, even with the use of sub specialties. Unable to confirm commentary.

Websites of Government Agencies Offering Specific Resources and Job Application Information:

National Resource Directory www.ebenefits.va.gov is an inter-agency web portal. It is considered the most helpful single government site for Wounded Warriors, Service members, Veterans, their families and for caregivers. It is a federal Government site that provides information and links to probably the largest number of federal, state and local resources. This includes Federal, State and local government agencies and veteran service organizations. Additionally, non-profit and community-based organizations, academic institutions and professional associations are also linked the site. The visitor can best use the site by identifying what is being looked for or sought, then using the options focused to that need. This site is a collaborative effort of the U.S. Defense Department, the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Labor.

Feds Hire Vets www.FedsHireVets.gov is a One-Stop Resource for federal employment information. It offers a list of Veteran Employment Program Offices who promote Veteran recruitment, employment, training and development (as well as retention) within their particular agency. Use these contacts to gather specific information on employment in those agencies. Also has a link to USAJobs to begin your search. However, would encourage using the link above initially in your search for opportunities with the federal sector. This site also has link to Education and Training opportunities.

Useful Links for Veterans Seeking Federal Employment

Determining Veteran Preference www.dol.gov/elaws/vets/vetpref/msservice.htm should be used to assist in determining your Veterans Preference.

Federal Jobs By College Major www.usajobs.gov/ResourceCenter/Index/Interactive/JobsByCollegeMajor#icc. Use this site to help you determine which Federal Positions you most likely qualify for based on your education.

Federal Qualification Standards, by Series & Grade After you have identified the federal positions you believe you qualify for based either on your military experience or your education, use the following link to help in determining the qualifying standards by both series and grade:
www.opm.gov/qualifications/standards/indexes/num-ndx.asp.

Job/Skills Translator for Military Personnel See www.military.com/veteran-jobs/skills-translator for assistance in translating your military experiences to civilian skills. Note that this site also is referenced above. It also has the ability to add military training and schools attended. This last is definitely helpful in applying for federal positions.

A caution: All Government advisors and quality coaches counsel to never use the same resume in applying for multiple positions in the federal government. It is viewed as a most likely disqualifier. Every Government resume should be focused to the specific position being sought. Be aware of, and use where appropriate, the qualifications noted in the Federal Qualification Standards, guided by the Series and Grade being applied to.

Websites of Career Fair Providers for individuals holding or eligible for a US Security Clearance:

Chamber of Commerce, US See listing above: Web Site supporting the Military in Transition, Spouses and Veterans. Many of the career fairs offer free seminars on job search. Also, check out the Chamber's web site for helpful information.

Also please note that beginning last fall Corporate Gray began hosting monthly Virtual Military Career Fairs in addition to the in-person events. Transitioning and veterans should register ahead of time with www.corporategray.com for the electronic notification of forthcoming Corporate Gray events. This is the small, independently owned firm that has generated and donated 3 million+ copies of their Military-to-Civilian career transition books. Corporate Gray was the first to focus on transitioning military, beginning in 1997, and set the standard for military career fairs that do not require clearances. Always check the web site or the newspaper ads ahead of the scheduled event for specific free seminars that are always on target. Corporate Gray is hosting monthly Virtual Military Career Fairs in addition to the in-person events. Transitioning and veterans should register ahead of time with www.corporategray.com for the electronic notification of forthcoming Corporate Gray events. This is the small, independently owned firm that has generated and donated 3 million+ copies of their Military-to-Civilian career transition books.

TargetedJobfairs.com www.targetedjobfairs.com offers both career fairs for cleared professionals and US citizens eligible for clearance who hold a degree or relevant military experience.

TechExpoUSA.com www.TechExpoUSA.com producer of Job Fairs and Corporate Open Houses calling for experienced individuals with Active Security Clearances. Check their web site for Career Fairs in California, Colorado, and the East Coast in addition to the metro DC area.

Websites of Service Providers for Seekers of Federal Employment and Sites for Cleared Personnel Seeking Government Positions and contractors to the Federal Government:

Avuecentral www.avuecentral.com is another resource for job seekers of federal positions. The site offers a variety of services and resources and is a good source for those seeking a federal position for the first time.

ClearedConnections.com. www.clearedconnections.com. This site is primarily for the job seeker but is also used by recruiters, both in the Government and outside. The site matches job seekers who hold active or current DoD, DoE and State Department security clearances with opportunities in the federal sector. The job seeker, after registering can search by key word, by location and more. Offers articles and identifies “hot” industries and positions as well as employers who have contracts with the noted federal organizations above.

Federal News Radio. www.federalnewsradio.com. The WTOP News Radio site with Mike Causey, former Washington Post columnist of The Federal Diary. Offers daily input to happenings in the federal sector and covers the key events. Often bringing the latest information found at the various weekly and monthly hard copy and electronic newsmagazines the cover the federal governments activities.

Federal Research Service. www.fedjobs.com. The organization has been around since 1974, and continues to be the premier source of the most complete and current job listings, by agency, location and career field. The publication is Federal Career Opportunities. (this publication is not free) FRS offers a free monthly newsletter, coaching and counseling as well as resume service and critique, and is the only Federal Jobs Database outside of the Government.

GovLoop. www.govloop.com is relatively new website for those interested in connecting within the federal sector, either to join or move to a new agency or department, www.govloop.com identifies itself as a social network for Government. The site offers discussions, blogs, events, articles and directories as well as federal job listings and virtual job fairs.

The Resume Place. www.resume-place.com. Kathryn Troutman’s web site offers a large variety of services that include federal resume writing, books, training, resources that include a blog, free newsletters, a free weekly one-hour online class, and presentations. You must register for blog, newsletters and online class. See the web site for details. The Resume Place can be contacted at 800-480-8265 or 410-744-4324. Kathryn Troutman’s book Ten Steps to a Federal Job, 3rd Edition. This has now been superseded by her book, Federal Resume Guidebook, 6th Edition.

Other useful resources for the seeker of federal employment include the several government weekly newspapers: Federal Times, www.federaltimes.com; Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps Times, all at “.com.” The value of these newspapers, even the free online aspects, gives you names, organizations and activities that can be followed up on for further dialog or adding substantive content to communications. The Washington Post, is another source and another consideration.

To a lesser extent the Washington and Baltimore Business Journals, www.washington.bizjournal.com; www.baltimore.bizjournal.com; and Washington Technology, <http://washingtontechnology.com> in their free side have valuable articles on the federal sector periodically, and always have articles on Government contractors.
